Accidentally Killed

A pistol in the hands of a negro on Mr. Seaborn Jones' place, near Kershaw, was accidentally discharged Monday afternoon, with the result that the ball took effect in the head of a little negro boy, killing him instantly.

The Winthrop Scholarship.

Miss Alice Mackey of this place is the winner of the vacant scholarship at Winthrop College, contested for at the competitive examination held at Lancaster on the 13th of August. There were several contestants. Miss Alice having stood the best examination was awarded the scholarship.

Communion Next Sabbath.

There will be preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Friday at 7:30 p. m. Also on Saturday at 11 a. m., and on Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered after the 11 o'clock sermon Sunday.

Shocked by Lightning.

Miss Mattie Hammond, daughter of Mr Raleigh Hammond, was severely shocked by lightning at the Cotton Mills Sunday evening while at the home of a neighbor.
She remained unconscious for some time and has not yet sufficiently recovered to resume work in the factory.

Almost a Fatal Accident.

Mr Reece Porter met with a painful accident last Saturday at his father's gin. He was sewing up the head of a bale of cotton that had been loaded on the wagon, when a darkey rolled a bale of cotton out of the press room which struck against one side of the door causing it to turn and fall across Mr Porter's head and shoulders, knocking him insensible.
Dr F C Hinson was summoned and did what he could to relieve the injured man. Unless there is some internal injury, the Doctor says Mr P., will soon be himself again. How he escaped instant death is miraculous.

Mr. Frank Perry Shot.

On Saturday last, at Mr W T Vanlandingham's gin and grist mill, at Dry Creek, Mr Frank Perry was shot in the right hip and thigh by Mr James L Barton. Both men are of the Dry Creek neighborhood and have always, so far as we ever heard, borne the reputation of being sober, quiet, peaceable citizens, and when the news of the shooting reached town it occasioned great surprise. Mr Barton was at the mill and had his gun on his shoulder when Mr Perry drove up in a wagon. Mr Barton says that it had been reported to him by several persons that Perry had said that he had tried to break into his cotton house to steal cotton, and that when Perry drove up he started towards him to ascertain if he had made the assertion and, that when within ten or fifteen feet of him, Perry drew his pistol and that he immediately fired one barrel of his gun at him and would have fired the second time but was prevented by Mr Vanlandingham catching the gun and holding it to it. Mr Perry, we understand, disclaims having made any accusation of an attempt by Barton to break into his cotton house and alleges an entirely different cause for the shooting.

Drs S A Kell and W M Crawford attended the wounded man, picking a number of bird shot from his thigh and dressing the wound, which is not considered serious.

It is the brake of day that prevents night from going too far.

—There will be services conducted in the Episcopal Church next Sunday by the pastor, Rev J W Catey Johnson, as follows: Morning Prayer and sermon at 11 o'clock a. m., and Evening Prayer and sermon at 5 p. m.
The public generally is cordially invited to attend these services.

Sad News for Dr. Humphreys.

Rev C W Humphreys, D D., received a letter the past week from his brother informing him of the death of his mother, Mrs A Neff, which occurred at Sue, West Virginia, on the 13th instant. Mrs Neff was in her 80th year and was a pious, christian woman, and died rejoicing in the inheritance upon which she was about to enter.

Burial of Miss Caston

The remains of Miss Annie Caston, whose sudden death at Oakhurst on Friday, was chronicled in our last issue, were interred in the Presbyterian cemetery at 10 o'clock last Saturday morning. The service was conducted by Dr Weber and a very large gathering of friends was present.
The pall bearers were: Maj J M Riddle, Col J N Crockett, Maj
B F Miller, W D Ingram, T S
Carter and L C Paysure.

Back from Texas.

Sheriff Clyburn returned from Martin, Texas, Monday with Mr W J Horton who is charged with a breach of trust. Mr Horton gave bond shortly after his arrival in the sum of $300., for his appearance at Court, and was discharged from custody. His father met him here and he went on to his home that afternoon.

Deaths

—When within two miles of their home, Tradesville, yesterday Evis, the 3 months old babe of Rev. and Mrs L L Bedenbaugh, expired in it's mother's arms. The child had been sick nearly 2 months and Mrs. Bedenbaugh was returning from her parents, where she had been in hope of its improving, when it died.

Mills, Sept 18, 1897, after a long suffering illness of thirteen weeks, KENDRICK, son of R J and Sarah R Bigham, aged 6 years, 8 month, and 7 days. Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for such is the Kingdom of Heaven. (Monroe papers please copy.)

—Died, at the Lancaster Cotton Mills, Sunday evening, CLYDE, a little son of Mr and Mrs J H Knight, aged about 3 years. The remains were interred in the town cemetery Monday afternoon.

Children Cry for Pitener's Castoreum

- - A Great Fall Trade. - -
We Expect It. We Deserve It.
We Will Be Ready for it in a few Days.
- - WE'LL HAVE IT. - -

We went to the Northern Markets expressly for up-to-date Bargains. We picked over every stock--taking here and there only such goods as we knew you would want. The result is every nook and corner of our store is crowded with desirable goods at prices that do credit to the name of "BARGAIN." Under the magic of our LOW PRICES, watch these disappear. We could sell the roof of the store. Only one-half of our big purchase in store--other half in depot. The public expects us to sell cheaper than our competitors, and we'll do it.

Next week an advertisement with startling low figures.

Our experienced Milliner, Miss Brown, is busy arranging a superb line of Millinery. You will think the prices are low.

Marriages.

Married, on Sunday last, at the home of the bride's father, near Heath Spring, by Rev J H Bold-ridge, Mr J W Bowling, of this place, and Miss Lettie Mobley, daughter of Mr H M Mobley.
Mr Bowling is the boss weaver at the Lancaster Cotton Mills and has many friends. The bride is very popular, and both have the best wishes of their many friends.

—Married, by Rev C W Humphreys, D D., on Sunday last, Mr Walter Dixney and Miss Ella Kobal, both of this place.

—Married, by Clerk of Court W S L Porter, at his residence, on Sunday last, Mr Ernest Can-tunen and Miss Hattie Brown, both of this place.

A New Firm to Open in Lancas- ter.

The Heath Hardware Company, of Monroe, with Messrs W S Heath and J T Stevens, two of our enterprising business young men, will, in a short time, open up at this place a mammoth hardware establishment. They will occupy the room which was used as an office and dining room in the old Catawba Hotel. The stairways will be taken out, petitions removed, windows bricked up and shelving and counters placed therein. They will also occupy that portion of the upstairs immediately above their store-room, which will be converted into a large hall for storing baggies, wagons, etc., and will be entered from the rear by means of a gangway. The Messrs Can-ningham have let the contract for the changes in the building and work will begin at once.

CARD OF THANKS.

The relatives of Miss E A Caston extend thanks to the many friends of Kershaw, Oak-hurst, Heath Springs and Lancaster for their very thoughtful attention to them in their recent sad bereavement.

Deserted His Wife

Some months ago, Mr J E Gwathney, claiming to be from near Statesville, took up quarters in the Pleasant Valley, S C., neighborhood, and courted and married Miss Martha Norman, of the same community. Last Sunday week, after having been married two months, Gwathney disappeared, and has not been seen since.

Mr Norman, father of Mrs Gwathney, was in the city yesterday hunting the "missing link." Gwathney is a tall fellow, has a sandy mustache, and is cross-eyed.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT TO THE MEMORY OF GLO. F. BAILEY.

WHEREAS, God in his all wise providence has seen fit to remove, by death, from our midst, our brother Allianceman, Geo T Barley, and,

WHEREAS, death at all times, and under all circumstances, brings sadness and grief; we realize in this sad dispensation of our heavenly Father a peculiar sadness. Therefore be it,

Resolved 1st, That in the death of our brother, Geo T Bailey, St Luke Alliance has lost a faithful and true member, one always at his post, ready to discharge the duties imposed by his brother Alliancemen.

2nd, That, we tender to the bereaved widow and orphaned children our heartfelt sympathies, commending them to the tender mercies and compassion of Him who has promised to be a husband of the widow and a father of the fatherless.

3d, That, a blank page in our minute book be inscribed to the memory of our deceased brother, and that a copy of this preamble and resolutions be given to his family and copies be sent to the county papers, with a request to publish same.

DEAD IN A BAR ROOM.

Mr V C Austin, of Monroe, Ecclesiastically Stricken With Apoplexy.

Special to Charlotte Observer.

Monroe, Sept. 18th.—Mr V C Austin, a prominent citizen of the town fell dead late this afternoon.
He was standing in White's bar when the stroke, presumably apoplexy, came, and though in his usual health and in the midst of conversation, sank to the floor without a word. He was a very large man, nearly 300 pounds in weight. The deceased was a son of the late C. Austin, and has been prominent in the life of the town for 20 years. He was about 45 years of age.
